

An abstract oil painting of a rose. The rose is the central focus, rendered with thick, expressive brushstrokes in shades of white, pink, and red. It is surrounded by vibrant, swirling colors including deep blues, greens, and oranges, creating a dynamic and textured background. The overall style is impressionistic and painterly.

Miriam ANGELI PADILHA

Brazilian artist.

Born in 1999, lives and works in Paris.

Miriam ANGELI PADILHA studied painting at the Parque Lage School of Visual Arts, earned a degree in art history from the Rio de Janeiro School of Fine Arts, and received her DNSEP from the Marseille School of Fine Arts. Miriam Angeli Padilha's work explores the sacred and magical aspects of modernity's impressions. By documenting the present, the painter transforms everyday life into memory and interprets its mythologies. Color is the primary tool of this artistic exploration, in dialogue with Pierre Bonnard, Paula Modersohn-Becker, and Lucian Freud. Nurtured by folk music (Joni Mitchell, Leonard Cohen) and bossa nova (Edu Lobo, Tom Jobim), and inspired by the intuitive prose of Clarice Lispector, the painter establishes her own style and seeks a communion: "One day, it will be the world with its sovereign impersonality facing my extreme individuality, yet we will be one." (Clarice Lispector—An Apprenticeship or The Book of Delights, 1969).

Miriam's color palette, combined with a rich, gestural quality, is generously magnified through a sense of saturation. Her painting nevertheless retains a great gentleness; it seems to ward off drama and carve out a space to listen to silence, to live solely in the moment.

The "Sant'Agata" series of paintings was created in 2023, following two trips to Sicily and, in particular, after observing the Feast of Sant'Agata, held every February in Catania. This religious festival commemorates Saint Agatha of Catania, a Christian saint, virgin, and martyr who died in 251. In 2002, the festival of Saint Agatha of Catania was designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site as a "value of humanity."
