Marc-Antoine DECAVÈLE

French artist

Born in 1981. Lives and works in Vernoux.

Marc-Antoine Decavèle's works are shaped by his reflections and thoughts drawn from art history, literature, and philosophy. His painting practice maintains a subtle relationship between the visible and the invisible, and his works make this meeting point between the two possible. His works are tactile and demand an appreciation of texture, as the artist's intention is to make us feel the image. In his choice of tools and medium, he maintains a physical distance between himself and the image in order to «avoid being too influenced.» His reflection on his method and gesture always demonstrates a true precision, balancing simplicity and free-flowing expression.

In the series «Towards Vision,» presented in this exhibition, Marc-Antoine Decavèle uses various spray guns to project the paint. It is through repetition, through the artist's gestures, that the visible emerges from the invisible, and light from the darkness. And thus the image appears. With each invisible passage of his hand, Marc-Antoine brings forth light, incorporating it into the existing darkness; the two become intertwined. Through the vibration created by their interaction, all that escapes becomes dispersion and resonates. A new space is sculpted, revealing its vibrations, its echoes. The image then approaches the idea of place, opening a field of vision for us.
